

Dear Michael Powell,

Sinclair Broadcasting is clearly biased and is committing an act way more detrimental to our country than an exposed breast.

It is your obligation to keep the fight fair.

Sure, if Kerry wins you'll be out of a job but at least you'll be able to sleep at night knowing you weren't just a glorified puppet for the Bush administration.

Steve